

This is one of our first projects displaying the new ledgerrock style waterfeatures. This waterfall project was over 50 ft in length and reached 4 ft at its' highest point adding an accent to the slide. Also, we covered their concrete spa with our rock panels to continue on with the natural rock theme of this community center.

